

STORM DEATH TOLL MOUNTS TO 33

TWO STATES IN MIDWEST SWEEP BY TORNADOES

Unconfirmed Reports Place
Number of Dead at 30—
Property Damage Placed
at Hundreds of Thousands of Dollars.

(By The Associated Press.)
ST. PAUL, Minn., Sept. 22.—
Partial restoration of wire communication today gradually increased the known toll of Sunday's storm in Wisconsin and at noon the casualties stood at 33
dead and scores injured with immense property damage reported.
This toll was taken in several scattered sections, reports received here showed, while tangled wires continued to isolate some districts, promoting the fear that further deaths might be reported
when communication becomes normal.

(By The Associated Press.)
ST. PAUL, Minn., Sept. 22.—
Nineteen known dead, at least 10
injured, and property damage
estimated at hundreds of thousands of dollars was the toll of tornadoes and windstorms that swept across Minnesota and Wisconsin late yesterday. Unconfirmed reports placed the number of dead at 30.
In Wisconsin, 11 persons were known to have been killed in the vicinity of Thorp. However, unconfirmed reports were that 22 were dead. Six persons were killed at Sandborn, six miles north of Thorp, one at Milwaukee and another at Eveleth, Minn.
Interrupted wire communication in the affected areas made
it impossible to obtain details
early today.

SEEKS RECORDS OF CIVIL WAR'S NAVY VETERANS

Lieutenant Paschal Follows
Up Work Started By Admiral A. O. Wright.

Lieutenant Jack Paschal, of Atlanta, arrived here yesterday to spend a week during which time he will endeavor to secure the personal histories
of Danville men who served in the Confederate navy during the civil war.
Admiral A. O. Wright, who will be relocated here in about two years ago in the interest of his former comrades, is still prosecuting the task of securing rosters and histories
of the navy, and he is now being helped by Lieutenant Paschal who, during the next few days, will be glad to secure any information bearing on this subject. He will maintain an office in the courthouse while he is here.
Confederate Veteran organizations
are supporting this movement in the belief that while much has been written and recorded about the accomplishment of the Confederate armies,
too little has been written about the navy. Mr. Paschal has secured documentary evidence and copies of original letters, recording skirmishes and sea battles by Confederate ships against great odds which are worthy of a place beside the records of sacrifice and courage on land. A history is to be compiled of the naval record and each State's part will be included. The compilation will be placed with other Confederate archives. Virginia's quota
of men who fought with the Confederate navy is about 500 and Lieutenant Paschal who served with the army in the past, is anxious to hear from surviving naval veterans
or from their descendants.

TWO MEMBERS OF PARTY SIGHTSEEING IN TUNNEL AT LYNCHBURG KILLED

Quintet Caught Midway of Long Tunnel. When
Trains Enter From Both Ends—Laid Down On Plank Walk Between
Tracks, Father and Daughter Being Struck.

(By The Associated Press.)
LYNCHBURG, Va., Sept. 22.—Described on the part of J. E. Madren, 50,
a farmer living near Elion, N. C., inspect the long Southern Railway
tunnel here Sunday morning
about 10 o'clock, cost his own life
and that of his daughter, Miss Mary,
aged 14, and endangered the lives of Mr. Madren's son, M. D. Madren, of this city, the latter 14 year old son, Claydon, and J. M. Phillips, 26, of Gilsonville, N. C.
The quintet was on a sightseeing
trip and left their automobile near
the southern end of the tunnel and decided to walk through. About half way through the tunnel, which is 1-450 feet long, freight trains were heard approaching from both ends

GLIDEWELL WINS A REPRIEVE FOR AUSTIN CARTER

Morrison Stays Carter Electrocution Until Nov. 15—
Will Hear Argument

Powell W. Glidewell, of Reidsville,
N. C., attorney for Austin W. Carter, condemned wife-slayer, has succeeded in securing a reprieve until November 15 for the former insurance agent,
who, under the recent sentence of Judge T. D. Bryson, at Weathersville, N.
C., was to have been electrocuted next Friday at Raleigh, N. C. Mr. Glidewell has returned to Reidsville with the main object of his visit to Raleigh accomplished. During the stay of sentence which is only temporary, the governor will give the Reidsville attorney a further chance to appear before him to argue in favor of a com-
mutation of the death sentence to life imprisonment. Governor Morrison is to let the lawyer know what day he will be prepared to hear the arguments. In the meantime the executive will scan the petitions filed with him last week by Mr. Glidewell.

The final appeal to save Carter's life, and his attorney believes he will be successful, will be made on the ground that the condemned man was
of unsound mind at the time he shot
and killed his wife and wounded other members of her family in Reidsville.
It is recalled that at the trial Dr. Anderson, North Carolina alienist who had studied Carter during the time of his arrest and trial told the jury that in his opinion Carter was suffering from a mental disorder, and that he was subjected to irresistible impulses.
The jury awarded the death sentence
and convicted him of first degree murder
calling for the man's execution of the crime in the electric chair.
Governor Morrison "did not commit himself on his final decision," Mr.
Glidewell says, but the attorney feels encouraged by the entering of the executive order giving Carter a new lease on life.
While in Raleigh Mr. Glidewell saw Carter. He reports to have found him in good spirits considering the mental ordeal he is suffering and to be prepared to meet his maker if the governor should decide that he held no
animus towards his wife and that when he entered the Moore home his intentions was to kill John Price who,
he claims had written him letters of character calculated to arouse keen feelings.

Gilbert Mentioned As a Candidate in Fifth District

The Fifth District Republicans appear to be bent on putting a Congressional candidate in the field. Some of the Republicans in Patrick and Henry counties are said to have written representations to the District Republican committee asking that the party make a contest. It is in view of these representations that the committee has been called to meet on Wednesday, September 24th for the purpose of taking definite action. It is reported in local circles that L. I. Gilbert, Democratic representative of Patrick county, and some years ago figures in an absorbing election contest for the office of clerk of the Patrick county court, T. Lee Clark, Democratic representative of the county
at large, are the contestants. Gilbert is understood to have signified his readiness to accept the nomination if it is tendered him. He has been active in party politics for some years.

Q. J. MADREN KILLED

and the members of the party quickly laid down on a plank walk, two feet wide, on which they were walking between the two tracks.
After the trains entered both ends of the tunnel the interior became very dark, so that the survivors cannot tell how Madren and his daughter were injured. It is believed, however, that after the first engine
passed them safely that they eased
over near the other track and were caught by the second train. Mr.
Madren had his right arm literally torn from his socket and he was otherwise injured in the right side. The daughter had her right foot crushed off, but was conscious up to her death. It was not thought at first
that she was fatally wounded.
M. D. Madren said when he realized
the result of the party he called for help. He caught his boy
up and fell prone on the plank walk
on top of the youth and it so happened that Phillips fell on top of Madren and the three were unhurt.
Fortunately for the victims no other train followed shortly and the work of getting the injured out of the tunnel was not impeded. Madren
and his daughter died late during the day at the Lynchburg hospital, the father never regaining consciousness.
Their bodies were taken this morning to Elion for burial.

MINISTER ADMITS TWO MURDERS RIDICULES REPUDIATION MADE BY GASTON MEANS

The War's Still Waging!
Life is no bed of roses for King Hussein and his numerous son kings over in the territory of Iraq, Hedjaz, Trans-Jordan. Another Arab tribe, the Wabab, always is making life miserable for the Hussein family. The two tribes are at war almost constantly. Here may be seen part of Hussein's general staff. Nearly all the officers are wearing British uniforms.

J. W. PEACOCK ESCAPED SLAYER CAUGHT IN WEST

Physician Who Slew Chief
of Police Taylor, Trailed
to Calif., and Arrested.

RALEIGH, Sept. 22.—Dr. J. W.
Peacock, who murdered Chief of Police Taylor of Thomasville, several years ago, and who escaped from the criminally insane ward of the state prison at Raleigh on the night
of August 30, 1922, has been captured at El Cajon, California, after a long search. Announcement of the capture of Peacock was made by the prison officials here last night in a formal statement. It was stated that Peacock is now in the custody of the state police and that he caused the arrest and detention of Peacock. It is further intimated that Peacock will fight extradition, but that Warden Busbee is armed with authority from Governor Morrison to secure legal counsel and institute legal proceedings to have the escaped murderer returned to North Carolina.
The state prison officials are very happy over the capture of Peacock.
The romantic escape of the doctor was anything but a credit to the prison officials and they have been earnestly seeking his return. Some months ago Dr. Peacock, who had made his way to Florida, openly announced his intention of practicing medicine in a Florida city. In fact word was sent back to the state that Dr. Peacock had become a resident of Florida and was ready to resume
the practice of medicine. When Governor Morrison sent an officer to Florida, however, Peacock had disappeared.
Peacock, who shot Chief of Police
Taylor to death on the streets of Thomasville, was tried at Lexington and ordered confined for life in the insane ward of the state prison. The murder of Chief Taylor was particularly brutal. The officer was shot by Peacock while he was standing on the street, the doctor shooting Taylor
from a window on the second floor of a Thomasville building. Desperately wounded Taylor made his way into a drug store. Peacock after shooting the officer went down stairs
and into the drug store where the wounded man lay and there emptied
his pistol into the chief's body.

ROXIE STINSON DENIES SOME OF HIS STATEMENTS

Means Charges Wheeler
Was Behind Scheme of Testimony Given.

(By The Associated Press.)
ABAND WHEELER SPECIAL
ENROUTE TO BLOOMING-
TON, Ill., Sept. 22.—Gaston B.
Means, investigating and ex-prosecutor in the Daugherty inquiry, whose repudiation of his own testimony was published Sunday,
called Senator Wheeler, independent vice-presidential candidate,
over the long distance telephone
last night and gave a startling
version of that episode. Senator Wheeler announced today to correspondents.
"Means asked me to call the Senate investigating committee
together in order that he might present documentary evidence
and personal testimony which would prove, he said, even grosser corruption in the executive departments in Washington than
was alleged in testimony before
the hearings last spring," Senator
Wheeler declared.

(By The Associated Press.)
COLUMBUS, Ohio, Sept. 22.—Miss Roxie Stinson, one of the Senate committee's star witnesses in the investigation of the Daugherty case, former United States attorney general, today characterized as "ridiculous" a statement from Gaston Means, former department of justice agent, to the effect that she had admitted to repudiating his testimony before the committee.

GAS STATION SAFE CARRIED OFF BY THIEVES

Lovetown Establishment
Robbed of Over $100
During the Night

The Lovetown Service station between Danville and Stokesland was visited last night by thieves of broad vision. After wringing off the lock made off in their car or truck
on the entrance they found a small iron safe measuring about thirty inches square. They did not bother about opening it but they picked up and placed it in their car or truck
and made off with it. The safe contained between $108 and $116 also one check drawn on R. B. Fentress of this city for $210. The thieves
molested none of the accessories
which are kept there and apparently made off as soon as they could get out the safe. The discovery was made early this morning when employees
found that the door had been forced.
The service station which is open for business on Sunday was closed at about nine o'clock last night. Nobody in the vicinity saw or heard anything suspicious during the night.
Police detectives from the city
were out at the garage this morning hunting for clues. They combed the nearby woods expecting to find the safe probably was carried away to an out of the way place in order to be forced open without danger of the thieves being molested.
The service station is one of those operated by the Automotive Service Corporation.

Hays Spent Sunday Here and Discussed State Tag Bureau

State Motor Vehicle Commissioner
James A. Hays spent the whole of Sunday in Danville conferring with local officials on the question of the issuance of state license tags and the requirements of re-registration under the new state law. It was the quest of Mac strike Charles K. Carter, while here, the evening being spent with Commonwealth's Attorney John W.
Carter. While no specific promises were made by Mr. Hays relative to the opening here of a state office
where license tags may be secured,
in order to expedite the issuance of tags, the belief prevails that such a substitution will be opened in Danville
and will be in charge of local authorities. Mr. Hays promised to write to Mr. Carter within the next few days
at which time he will give his decision. Mr. Hays is understood to have given the local authorities a good deal of information regarding the issuance of tags here and to have offered reasons why the local privilege was abrogated recently. The result of the visit is believed to have been beneficial and to have definitely allayed differences which have arisen
during the past few weeks.

POISONED WIFE AND MAN TO END SUFFERING, SAYS

Rev. L. M. Hight, After Long Questioning, Makes
Confession But Declares
No Mixed Love Affairs
Figured—Took Lives to End Their Sufferings.

(By The Associated Press.)
MT. VERNON, Ill., Sept. 22.—
The Rev. Lawrence M. Hight, who had confessed early today that he had killed his wife, Anna, and Wilford Sweetin, by placing poison in their drinks as he administered to them during illness,
according to a statement given
out by State's Attorney F. G.
Thompson.
Shortly before four o'clock, after hours of questioning, the State's attorney said Hight stated
he put poison in a cup of coffee
which he served to his wife, Anna,
on the morning of September 10
and then admitted he put poison
in a glass of water he gave to Wilford Sweetin at his home in Ina, July 27.
Traces of the same poison had been found by a chemist in the viscera of both persons. The physician, Dr.
Hight, is said to have admitted
Saturday he had purchased poison
three times in recent months in Benton and Mount Vernon, had maintained he had obtained it to kill rats
in the paragon. The confession exonerated Mrs.
Sweetin and declared there was no
basis for the village gossip linking Hight's name with her's.
Hight went frequently to the Sweetin home in his official capacity
to minister to the sick during the illness of Sweetin and was with him the night before he died.
Yesterday Coroner Jesse Reece received the chemist's report saying that Sweetin's death had been caused by poison. The body had been dis-interred following the arrest of Hight
upon the discovery of poison in his wife's stomach.
The confessions stated that Hight administered the poison to relieve the pain of the sick persons.

(By The Associated Press.)
MOUNT VERNON, Ill., Sept. 22.—
Rev. Lawrence M. Hight, Ina pastor, confessed early today to poisoning his wife and Alfred Sweetin.
In his statement to the authorities,
Hight declared that the murder of his wife and Sweetin prompted to "relieve her sufferings."
According to the statement he placed poison in her coffee on the morning of September 10.
Hight was questioned from 9 o'clock last night until 4 o'clock this morning before a confession of the poisoning of his wife was obtained.
The authorities said, adding that a few minutes later he confessed also
to the poisoning of Sweetin.
He claimed to be temporarily out
of his mind at the time.
Rev. Hight said he had put poison
in Sweetin's water to put him out of pain. This was on the morning of Sunday, July 27, at the Sweetin
home, where Sweetin lay ill.
Hight declared in his confession
that there had never been anything
between himself and Mrs. Sweetin
and absolved her of any complicity
in the double crime.

(By The Associated Press.)
The suit instituted some months ago
by Miss Catherine Lickliter, as administratrix for her mother, against the Southern Railway Company, as the result of the tragic accident in which Mrs. Lickliter and Miss Nancy Keen were killed, has been settled out of court. It was learned today that the settlement was made by the Southern Railway Company, which begins today. Miss Lickliter entered suit for $10,000. While there is nothing at all unusual in a settlement of $2,000. The in the neighborhood of $2,000. The settlement was made by the South-
ern's claim agent and Jack Lee, attorney for the railroad, who with Carroll and Williams, represented the plaintiff.

Nearly two hundred relatives and friends of the late M. Sonnenberg gathered yesterday afternoon at the Jewish cemetery, on the River Road, where the unveiling of the tombstone was held. This is a custom usually followed within a year from the time of death. The exercises included a prayer for the dead, uttered by Rabbi L. Lasch, and a formal and impressive eulogy
for both of the deceased made by Rabbi I. Muskat.
The new and handsome schoolhouse at Ruffin which has attracted the attention of all persons passing by, was dedicated yesterday. The down the Reidsville road which was recently dedicated was occupied
for the first time by the school children for the first time. The school is described as being one of the finest in the country which already boasts of an unusually handsome consolidated school at Westworth which has been warmly praised. One of the most recent improvements was the grading
of the spacious sliding lawn from the school to the road which will afford ample playground space. Included in the faculty of the school is Miss Sarah Carter, formerly of this city who will teach Home Economics. She is a graduate of the North Carolina College for Young Women at Greensboro, N. C.

Another Halifax Revolver Victim

Another revolver fatality in Hall-fax county came to light this morning when reports told of the accidental death of a man in the early morning of Dock Miller. A road
camp was the scene of the tragedy.
Miller and Henry Stephens were together engaged in trying to unload
a five chambered revolver. Miller was the one who was killed. The bullet entered his abdomen when in some way the pistol went off and the bullet penetrated his body causing almost instant death.
Judge Woodall of South Boston,
went to the scene and conducted an inquest. Stephens was completely exonerated of blame in the matter.
Only a few days ago Robert Elliott accidentally killed himself with a shotgun at Nelson.

FIVE MEN TRAPPED BY NEW MINE EXPLOSION
(By The Associated Press.)
SPRING CANYON, Utah, Sept. 22.—Rescue crews were working frantically this morning to reach the five men imprisoned in the L. E. Rains mine
of the Carbon Fuel Company,
near here since early last evening as the result of an explosion. The mine is not as far as reported in dispatches and progress is being made in clearing away debris.
Mine company officials said
that while a check showed only
five men were at work cutting
and blasting when the explosion occurred, it is possible there were others.
Normally the mine employs
about 200 men but the work
crews were off short at the time.

Young Set Would Rather Hang for a Crime Than Go to Prison For Life

By MARGARET DALE
(Copyright, 1924, by The Bee)
CHICAGO, Sept. 22.—The younger generation—the flapper, sheik and co-ed world to which Dickie Loebe and "Babe" Leopold belonged until last Wednesday—today, upset the judgment of matured thinkers and dealt a telling blow to the opinions expressed by prominent people in Chicago in regard to Judge Caverly's verdict in the Frank murder case.

On campus, in various fraternity houses, at are schools, and at other places about town, where the younger generation congregates, they stated frankly and seriously that they believed life imprisonment to be a far greater punishment for a young man than hanging.

Preachers, lawyers, educators, business men and women of high standing by the dozen, have deplored the verdict of life imprisonment and ninety-nine years. They said almost unanimously that the effect on the younger generation was bound to be a bad one. It should have been hanging.

Those opinions of at least thirty young persons under the age of 20, with college education and an environment of ease and wealth, refuted today, declaring they would rather be hanged several times than sent to a life of confinement where youthful pleasures and pleasant contacts would be forever lacking.

"Those who think Loebe and Leopold got the easier sentence are much mistaken," Ernest Luckner, a student of one of the universities declared. "A week outside the penitentiary, with all pleasures—automobiles, good things to eat and drink—missing, not to mention contact with pretty girls and other folks, would have been a terrible punishment for both in ten days before the murder. I know them well enough to realize what a lifetime behind gray walls will mean."

"If I, myself, had five minutes in which to decide on hanging or life imprisonment for myself I would readily choose hanging as the quickest way out and the easiest."

Two boys, members of a fraternity at the University of Chicago, said the sentence imposed on the two millionaire youths had caused more serious talking and thinking than hanging could have done. "Many persons, mostly of middle age, are surprised at the impression the verdict made on us students," one boy said. "Those of the younger generation are not surprised that any boy or girl in the teens should shudder more at the prospect of life imprisonment than death by hanging. There is psychology about it. If you stop to think, boys and girls in their teens are just beginning to wake up to the world about them. They have a whole life before them in the natural state of things, and because they cannot foretell the future, they naturally hope and expect the wonderful and beautiful adventures of life. The greatest thing about life to us is the wonderful things before us. To die by hangings is not out of from everything desirable in the world, is hell on earth, in our estimation."

HOW SHANGHAI LOOKS TO ALIEN

American sailors again are marching down the streets of Shanghai. They are there to protect Uncle Sam's interests. Here is a sketch showing the columns of gobs winding through the narrow streets. It was made by Nea Service artists from an original photograph. In the circle at the upper right may be seen the Chinese for the city's name. The two dots show it is a city built along the water. They represent the splashing of the waves.

By CHARLES P. STEWART

"Shanghai" means "Near the Sea." This is just what Shanghai is. It is on the Whangpu river bank, three or four hours' steaming above the small Chinese town of Woosung.

It is at Woosung that the waters of the Whangpu and the mighty Yangtze mix and empty together, into the Yellow Sea. Woosung is situated on the flatland of land at the point where the two rivers meet.

Originally Shanghai was a place of little importance.

The Chinese word "fu" means, among other things, a "seat of government" of some sort. So this word "fu" is to be found added to the names of most Chinese cities of much consequence—for instance, Chi-fu.

Shanghai, as they say, was "not even a fu city" at first. That is, it was "not even a county seat." Then it became a "treaty port." The Chinese "treaty ports" are those places at which foreigners are permitted to trade and settle.

Each Has Own Courts

Each important nationality was given a "concession" to the Whangpu, about half a mile wide and extending inland some three miles. They were alongside and adjoining, and just above them, up the Whangpu, was the walled native city.

The respective nationalities administered their various "concessions" to suit themselves. They enjoyed extraterritoriality. The American concession, for instance, was considered American soil.

Such a condition naturally is humiliating to the Chinese. They never have liked it. Nevertheless it was the making of Shanghai commercial. It grew rapidly and prospered until today its population, native and foreign, exceeds 1,500,000.

During the Taiping rebellion in the 1850's and early 60's, Shanghai's foreign "settlements," with the exception of the French, were consolidated, for purposes of more effective defense. The French preferred to "go it alone."

To this day the consolidated "concessions" remain the "international settlement." Their frontage on the Whangpu is three or four miles and they extend about three miles inland.

The "settlement" is run by a council of the foreign consuls. Each nationality, however, has a large measure of autonomy. An American, for instance, accused of any offense, is tried in his own court, regularly constituted United States court, with its jail attached.

Population 20,000
Besides the foreigners a good many Chinese live inside the settlement limits, but they are subject to the settlement's regulations and to trial, if they violate them, in what are known as the "mixed courts."

In times of disturbance, like the present, there always is an influx of Chinese refugees into the settlement, where they are as safe as they would be on foreign soil anywhere in the world.

The foreign city's population is around 20,000, of every nationality on earth.

The Chinese city, however, is quite distinct and surrounded by a now much dilapidated wall.

Cruisers Always There

Sandwiched between the international settlement and the Chinese city is the French concession, still run independently.

Steamships of considerable draft can ascend the Whangpu as far as Shanghai and some craft do, including light cruisers, a number of which always lie off the settlement, for its the Geishas of Japan.

Man Attempts to End Life While Attending Funeral

(By The Associated Press)

CHICAGO, Sept. 22.—Mourners attending two funerals at Montrose cemetery today, witnessed an attempt of a man to burn himself to death. He was seized after a desperate battle, and taken to a hospital where it is said his burns would prove fatal.

The man, partially identified as Joseph Kopas, 45, was first noticed, slumping at the head of a grave breaking sticks and sticks into small pieces and dropping them around his feet. He had piled them almost to his knees and then tore up a newspaper and poked it into and underneath the brush. Then, leaning over so as to avoid upsetting his funeral pyre, he took from a small satchel a quart bottle of kerosene, which he emptied over his head. Before the nearest spectators could reach him, he had struck a match and set fire to the oil soaked pyre. Extending his arms he stood erect as the flames enveloped him. The bunch of sticks and paper burned out quickly, but the man, uttering no sound, his clothing burning and dropping off, walked up and down in front of the grave. A group of grave diggers finally overpowered him after he had fought them desperately. By the time a patrol wagon arrived he had fought off his rescuers and set fire to himself a second time. A policeman knocked him down and he was taken to a hospital, incoherent and unable to give any reasons for his act.

EVEN SIGHT OF FOOD WOULD SICKEN HIM

But Frey Quickly Overcame His Troubles By Taking Tanlac.

"What it takes to build a man up and make him feel right, Tanlac certainly has it," states George W. Frey, Jr., a well known printer, 623 Greenwood Ave., Philadelphia, Pa. "Before taking Tanlac I was badly run-down. For several months my stomach had been so upset that even the sight and smell of food was sickening to me. My nerves were all un-done, my sleep unsound and I had no strength to do anything. I never even went out any place after work hours, because I was always too tired."

"Three bottles of Tanlac has made me feel like a new person. It has put my stomach in first class condition, strengthened my body and steadied my nerves. I sleep good nights, get up mornings feeling fine and do my work without getting tired. I will continue taking Tanlac, as it keeps my system in a good, healthy condition."

TREASURY PLANS TO WIPE OUT ENTIRE PUBLIC DEBT OF U. S. WITHIN 25 YEARS

Department Mapping Out Program for Complete Retirement of Twenty-one and a Half Billion Dollars, Now Owed—Asks Co-Operation in Announcing Outline of Plans.

(By The Associated Press.) CLEVELAND, O., Sept. 22.—Complete retirement of the public debt of the United States in the next twenty-five years is now contemplated by the Treasury.

Federal fiscal affairs have reached the point where the Treasury is planning to retire the public debt in the next twenty-five years. The plan is to retire the debt by the year 1949.

Through such a program, however, Mr. Dewey said, the Treasury must have the full co-operation of all. He told the investment bankers that an effort to interfere seriously with the program would be a serious matter.

Pointing out that the government has had to pay approximately one billion dollars a year—almost one-fourth of its entire expenditure—interest on its public debt, the assistant secretary declared that outlay must be reduced.

Mr. Dewey said the Treasury must have the full co-operation of all. He told the investment bankers that an effort to interfere seriously with the program would be a serious matter.

PRESBYTERIANS O. K. ADDITION TO S. SCHOOL

At a congregational meeting held at the First Presbyterian church at the close of yesterday morning's service, the building committee which was appointed some months ago was authorized to proceed with the building of the needed addition to the Sunday school. The completed structure, together with the necessary remodeling of the interior of the present building, will represent an investment of $50,000. Thus far, unsolicited subscriptions from members of the congregation total $27,000. No concerted effort to complete the fund has yet been undertaken.

Heard and Chesterton have already completed the plans and sketches of the addition and members of the church and the committee have recently been scrutinizing them and are offering helpful suggestions. The remodeling of the interior of the present building is necessitated by virtue of the fact that the school will be put on a departmental basis as is being done by many of the present churches. The plans include assembly rooms and class rooms for each department and there is provision for a gymnasium.

The wing will cover land already owned by the church on the lower side of the present edifice. The addition, however, will not go further than the church line and the beauty of the classic church structure will not be marred in any way. In exterior design the wing will comport with the present white brick green tiled roof building.

J. Bryant Heard said this morning that he has not yet received authorization to proceed, but that as soon as it is given him he will call for bids from contractors. No time will be lost in making the improvement as no difficulty is expected in securing the subscriptions.

NEW ATTACK ON CHECKING ARMY UNSUCCESSFUL

(By The Associated Press.) SAN DIEGO, Calif., Sept. 22.—The armed-the-world fliers landed at Rockwell Field here at 10:31 a. m.

SHANGHAI, Sept. 22.—After battling at the Chekiang defensive line since daybreak, Kiangsu artillery was unable to push the Shanghai troops back in fighting which was in progress today between Hwang and Kiangsu forces at 13 miles west of Shanghai.

The firing started by the Kiangsu forces at 6 a. m., proved ineffectual. It was followed by another charge which started at 9 o'clock. There was a lull then until noon. At two there was a resumption of intense firing by the Kiangsu but without any marked change in position.

Checking headquarters at Lungwha today confirmed a report of the desertion of the Chinese fleet. The Hainan fleet was reported to have left the mouth of the Yangtze river yesterday for Nanking to join Peking naval forces.

It was pointed out today by persons in authority that by abandoning Hangchow, in Chekiang province, where a revolt among his troops was reported, Lu Yung Hsiang not only shortened his defense line from about seventy to one hundred miles, but he has forced foreign powers into the position of allies. Wherever the Chekiang forces are driven back in the neighborhood of foreign settlements, it was pointed out the enemy would not dare to continue firing, since shells falling on the settlement would mean instant intervention. Guarding of the foreign settlements was relaxed somewhat today. The weather was unsettled.

ENTIRE FAMILY WIPED OUT IN AUTO ACCIDENT

(By The Associated Press.) BOSTON, Sept. 22.—An entire family, as yet unidentified, was wiped out, the police believe, when an automobile owned by Michael Dobrovolsky, a chauffeur, crashed through a fence on Dorchester avenue, south Boston, last night and plunged into the Fort Point channel. Five bodies, including that of Dobrovolsky, had been recovered today and the police were dragging the waters of the channel for a sixth.

The bodies of a woman and three children, Dobrovolsky's companions, lay at a morgue awaiting identification. The chauffeur was unmarried. The police believed that he had taken a family of friends for a drive and explained the failure of relatives to claim the bodies by the probability that the entire family met death.

When the automobile was raised from the water by police and naval divers, four bodies were found in the rear of the car but the drivers' seat was empty. This gave rise to the belief that a second man had been drowned, probably the husband of the woman. Definite identification of Dobrovolsky's body was made today by Joseph A. Conroy, former congressman for whom the man had acted as chauffeur for ten years.

The British Museum possesses the most complete insect collection in the world.

"Uncle Joe" Cannoh is thinking about the presidential campaign as he sits on his front porch in Danville, Ill., these autumn days. And his mind goes back through the years to others even more bitter. But this time "Uncle Joe" is out of the fight. His life is fading like the autumn leaves.

CHURCH CONTROVERSY IN HENRY LEADS TO A SUIT

Primitive Baptists in Henry county are following with the greatest interest the doctrinal war which has flared up between two factions of the Leatherwood Primitive Baptist church and which has resulted in a suit in equity being filed in the Henry County Circuit court for the purpose of determining which of the two are true believers and which shall be given control of the church. Depositions are being taken daily at Martinsville before Justice P. B. Way in support of a bill setting forth a number of allegations which have been filed by trustees of the church. While the counter bill of the defense has not been filed, enough is contained in the papers already filed to show that it is the old story of modernists in conflict with the more conservative church element and of new constructions placed on the fundamental precepts.

The complainants in the action are the trustees of the church, W. S. Minter, John F. Adkins and J. S. Coles who also represent a large group of the church congregation. They are proceeding against Rev. Mr. Jackson, pastor of the church, and his followers, some of whom are named as Mr. and Mrs. James Minter, Mrs. Truman Draper, Jemima Thomasson, Lula Pace, Mrs. William Dovey, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Minter, George Bray, Mr. J. T. Jackson and Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Washburn.

The bill was filed in the equity proceeding in August and within the last few days Justice P. B. Way of Martinsville has been hearing depositions in support of the allegations contained in the bill. These, so far, have been largely an entering upon the records of the prime credal beliefs of the church. The main purpose of the suit is to secure the keys and possession of the building—the ground that Rev. Mr. Jackson is a "heretic" and should be expelled from the church because of his pulpit utterances.

ENORMOUS DEPOSITS OF COAL FOUND IN ARCTIC REGIONS BY EXPLORERS

Captain McMillan Tells Story of Interesting Discoveries in Far North—Evidence That Geologic Period Has Set In.

(By The Associated Press.) WISCONSIN, Sept. 22.—Enormous coal deposits were discovered in Ellesmere land by Captain Donald B. MacMillan, Arctic explorer, who arrived here Saturday with his party of six after a fifteen months sojourn in the far north.

The coal was found near Eureka. In seams at some places it was 25 feet thick. Samples of the coal, which he said was bituminous, were brought back by the explorer.

The location of the deposits, however, gave little hope that they could be brought in soon to augment the world's supply, for they are only a few hundred miles from the North Pole and 800 miles beyond reach of any transportation system excepting sledges.

According to information given the Associated Press by the explorer, the far north once had a climate startlingly different from that it now possesses. This indicates, he said, that the angle of the world's axis may have changed in the course of centuries.

Captain MacMillan also asserted that ice caps in the Arctic are increasing in thickness. Glaciers are moving southward and there possibly a glacial period may have set in. He said, too, that the Ellesmere land coast was sinking.

Speaking of a fine discovery of coal, Dr. MacMillan said: "This science proves the scientists' claim that this land had at one time a temperate climate. The big hills were at one time covered with vegetation and the climate was like that of Pennsylvania. Seams of coal 25 feet in thickness were found within less than nine degrees of the North Pole.

"The exact location of the deposits was 81 degrees, 40 minutes north latitude, within 30 miles of the pole. "On the tops of the hills, 1,200 feet above the sea, we have vent through ice and reached its greatest altitude for there are positive signs through the north now of a subsidence. The entire coast is sinking. "This shows a very different inclination of the earth's axis to the orb of time ago.

Good Morning Judge!

Two separate cases, resulting from last night's riot in the hotel, were up for disposition before Magistrate C. K. Carter this morning. On Saturday afternoon at four o'clock Police Sergeant J. L. Edwards and Officers Kessler and Foster Harrell, arrested Cliff Hardy and Joe Blaine, negro bellhops, and N. Thomas, said to be a travelling man, charging them with playing poker, also preferring a charge of violating the Layman act. Dick Williams, clerk of the hotel, was charged by the police with interfering with the police. The charge against Williams was not sustained, and he was exonerated. Fines of $2.50 were imposed on the gambling charge against the others, and the liquor charge against them was dismissed.

A subsequent visit to the hotel made by Police Detectives Campbell and Cook resulted in the discovery of four gallons of liquor in a room occupied by Taylor Blackwell, who is under process. Blackwell, according to the police, is under process in Rocky Mount today to answer a Layman act charge. A small quantity of liquor was found in Blackwell's Chevrolet car and this also has been seized by the officers.

continued; Frank Harrell, young cotton mill worker and former soldier, were to be arraigned in court of general sessions here today on the charge of murdering Major Samuel H. McLeary, United States army.

King and Harrell, according to confessions they are said by officers to have signed, killed the army officer 11 miles south of Cheraw, this county, on the afternoon of July 2 last, when he had picked them up on the Raleigh-Columbia highway to give them a lift in his automobile.

Whether or not their trial will begin today was not known this morning. Solicitor J. Monroe Spears, who will prosecute the case, announced that he was ready to proceed, but under the South Carolina law the defendants can demand a delay of three days after arraignment before being placed on trial.

So far as is known here, neither fined $10 and costs; Frank Harrell, larceny of clothing valued at $40, fined $10 and costs and given sixty days on the road; Phillip Bowman, given thirty days in jail; Frank Gillispie, allowing a vicious dog to run at large; L. Hodnett, driving an automobile while intoxicated, case sent to the grand jury; William Moon, defrauding, dismissed at costs; R. A. Lynch, forgery, case sent to the grand jury.

Visiting Pastor Starts Fight In Richmond Church

(By The Associated Press.) RICHMOND, Va., Sept. 22.—Charges against the Rev. James Fulcher, who came here from Michigan recently to address a Ku Klux Klan gathering which grew out of his interrupting services at Saint Paul's Episcopal church here yesterday, were dismissed in Police court today at the request of the Rev. Beverly D. Tucker, pastor of the church.

The Michigan minister was occupying a seat near the front of the church yesterday when the pastor declared in his sermon that men who go about hooded and masked seeking the dehumanization of non-Protestant peoples were undemocratic. Mr. Fulcher jumped to his feet and shouted: "You don't know what you're talking about" and started down the aisle toward the door. He was stopped by Andrew D. Christian, local attorney and member of the church, who demanded an apology. An argument followed and Fulcher was floored. A policeman, summoned in the meantime, placed the Michigan man under arrest.

R. L. McNealy, of Witt, was operated on at the General Hospital yesterday is getting along nicely.

The Tangle

An Intimate Story of Innermost Emotion Revealed in Private Letters

LETTER FROM LESLIE PRECOTT TO RUTH BURKE

Dear Ruth: I am enclosing Miss Anderson's letter to me. You can imagine my furious anger when I read it. What will that old woman not think of next when she is aided and abetted by Friedella Bradford? It is no wonder to me that poor women were burned after being accused of being witches in the Salem days, with such gossip and scandal-loving old maids and women always looking into their affairs and putting their own interpretation upon them.

Of course, my first reaction was to take the letter to Jack; then I remembered that I was angry at him and had said I would not forgive him until he had made me the abject apology which I think I deserve. That is the reason, my dear, I sent you the telegram, and why I am writing this explanatory letter.

Of course, I know I am getting you very much disliked by my mother-in-law, but I know you don't mind that.

I am very much discouraged, Ruth dear. I seem to be confronted with all sorts of problems that as far as I can see have no possible solution. Is this because I am a woman of less decision of character and strength of mind than most, or are they the ordinary daily problems that everyone has to work out? I know you, my dear, have had many in your life, and you have surmounted them splendidly. Indeed, you have proved a bulwark upon which I have built strength of character for myself.

First and foremost, Ruth, I must tell you that I am much worried over my baby's coming. The event which should make me the happiest of women fills me with worry and doubt, which is particularly acute since I have told John. I know that John loves children. I know he will be glad to have me have more than one; but the first thing he said to me, as everyone else has said whom I have told of my expected motherhood was: I hope it will be a girl.

Of course, I suppose that is what they would have said to any prospective mother who already had a boy. But you can see it is different in my case, and every time I hear those words, whether they are spoken unthinkingly of the circumstances of my adoption of little Jack, or whether, like John and his own children, they are said with a feeling that I shall come to wish my dear little adopted child out of the way of my own son's birthright, it always stabs my heart.

I try to quiet my fears by quoting to myself the words of my mother's old maid, who said to me one day of a child she had adopted, whom she said she gave exactly the same love and thought she gave to her other four children. "I don't care what you think," she said, "I shall love him just as much as I love the others. I shall love him just as much as I love the others. I shall love him just as much as I love the others."

"Not a bit," I tell you, Miss Leslie, it doesn't make so much difference in who does the loving," it does in who does the lovin'."

Little Jack has given his whole loyal baby heart to me. He is like a frolicsome puppy dog who has no eyes or ears but for the one to whom he has attached himself, and that person is near. He expects love from everybody, but some way he has got into his inmost soul that I am his and he is mine, and I couldn't break his child's heart by trying to disabuse him of it.

LANDIS MEETS CLUB OWNERS TODAY TO PLAN WORLD SERIES

(By The Associated Press.)

NEW YORK, Sept. 20.—Club owners of the three leading teams in each major league will meet here at noon tomorrow with Commissioner Landis to discuss arrangements for the 1924 world's series. Because of the uncertainty of the outcome of both races, no definite plans can be made, but the commissioner called the meeting in order to provide for various contingencies that may arise.

Present prospects are that the first game of the annual classic will be played October 2, three days after the close of the season, but this would be impossible in event of a tie.

President Johnson of the American league, has announced that in case a tie exists at the end of the regular schedule a three game series will be played to determine the pennant winner. The same method will be used in the National league, if a play-off is required. President Johnson said today, adding that this was provided by the league in the constitution.

SHARES TO BE GIVEN LARGER VALUE SOON

(By The Associated Press.)

NEW YORK, Sept. 20.—Special developments were reported to be impending in the American Tobacco Company which would give the shares larger value. In all probability, management, it was said, would decide to make a distribution of a portion of the assets of one of the holding company's subsidiaries, but which company will make the distribution is not known. Stocks of 18 subsidiaries were revealed as assets in a balance sheet submitted to the stock exchange some time ago. The principal one being the American Cigar Company. Its balance sheet as of December 31, 1923, showed working capital of $21,131,573 or nearly equal to the par value of the entire outstanding stock.

GERMAN FLAPPERS ARE CLASSED AS LADIES

BERLIN, Sept. 20.—Twenty-year-old flappers are to be treated as "ladies," according to regulations issued by the Berlin street car company to its employees.

Generally children are to give up their seats in favor of persons of age and are to be asked to do so by the conductor if their parents do not. "Girls of more than 12 years of age, however, are ladies and need not give up their seats," say the regulations.

Sometimes talk is cheap. Sometimes it isn't. Often a little of it costs a man a lot of money.

PREDICTS BALDNESS FOR WOMEN

MAN'S AGE-OLD IDEAL OF WOMANHOOD—AND THE MODERN REALIZATION.

By HORTENSE SAUNDERS

NEW YORK, Sept. 22.—Project yourself five or ten years into the future before you bob your hair, advises Charles Nestle vice president of the Wholesale Beauty Trade Association.

"Consider," he urges, "whether you prefer to have your hair on your head or on your face and distributed over your body."

"In every human being is a chemical laboratory that is constantly producing hair," he explains. "If it is not permitted to grow on the head it will grow elsewhere. Cutting distributes the growth."

"If the hair for short hair continues to grow as with men in the next generation and so will hairy arms, and chests."

Don't Brush Hair Any More.
Nestle is one of the leading hair specialists of the world. Bobbed hair has increased his business as well as that of practically every other hair dressing establishment in the country. So he is quite resigned from a matter of business, to let the shearing go.

RESTRAINT OF TRADE CHARGED BY COUNSEL AT OIL HEARINGS

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., Sept. 19.

The entire gasoline trade in America, and even in some foreign countries, is involved in evidence being produced in the gasoline price hearings conducted here by Attorney General Jesse W. Barrett of Missouri, in the opinion of well informed authorities.

Contracts brought forward at the hearing between the Standard Oil Company of Indiana and nearly all the other important companies of the United States, and applying to their foreign trade, are pronounced a violation of the anti-trust laws both by United States Attorney General Sione and Attorney General Barrett.

Some weeks ago the United States Department of Justice filed a suit against 43 oil companies doing interstate business, charging that, by a system of licenses on "cracking process" patents, the gasoline trade of the United States was being restricted and monopolized, and asking that the defendants be enjoined from a continuance of the contracts and their effects. The contracts, the existence of which was alleged by the Missouri hearing by the Standard Oil Company and admitted to be in effect at the present time.

A PAIR OF SILK STOCKINGS: COMEDY OF QUEEN'S GIFT

ROME, Sept. 20.—An amusing story concerning the Queen of Italy comes from the village of Piedmont.

During her recent visit there the Queen became interested in a very pretty bare-footed girl. She promised to send the child a pair of silk stockings, and on her return she was as good as her word.

In one stocking she put two banknotes and filled the other with candy. The Queen has just received the following letter from the girl:

"Your Majesty, Your kindness has given me much pleasure. My father has taken the money, the brother the candy, and my mother the stockings."

All that the child has left apparently is a charming memory.

ROME, Sept. 20.—A message from Brussels states that the Belgian Socialists have gone on strike for the purpose, among other things, of compelling the dismissal of Italian miners now working in Belgian pits. The Messenger points out that Italian workers abroad never undercut current wages and that the Belgian Socialists are simply jealous of their superior and quicker productivity.

The paper continues: "There is no justification in the attack of the illusory one of the many proofs of the illusory nature of that Socialist claim of the solidarity of international labor, urged on the masses as a guarantee of universal good will and peace."

Big Road Rally At Rocky Mount

ROCKY MOUNT, Va., Sept. 20.—An enthusiastic roadmeeting was held here in Rocky Mount yesterday afternoon, drawing over two hundred persons, representing Roanoke, Martinsville, Winston-Salem, N. C., and Rocky Mount, and intervening points. The meeting immediately set out upon organizing a committee from the towns along the Shenandoah valley route to do all in their power to have the approximately 100 miles on the highway lying north of Roanoke, and the 23 miles between Roanoke and Rocky Mount finished at once.

At the opening of the morning session, R. H. Angel, of Roanoke, was elected temporary chairman, and W. T. Ritter, of Winston-Salem, N. C., was appointed temporary secretary. A nominating committee composed of Earnest Howard, of Martinsville; Ryland Goode, of Rocky Mount; W. C. Turner, of Roanoke, and J. F. Morris, of Winston-Salem, N. C., as appointed to name the permanent officers of the association to be formed. The feature of the morning session was a complete outline of the reasons for which the meeting was called, presented by Mr. Ritter.

The afternoon session was consumed by the naming and forming of the Shenandoah Valley-Carolina Highway Association, and the election of officers as follows: R. H. Angel, Roanoke, president; N. P. Angle, Roanoke, vice president; W. T. Ritter, Winston-Salem, N. C., secretary and treasurer. Directors: J. H. Gilmer, O. D. Ford, Major Hiram Opie, R. L. Lynn, Ryland Goode, J. During the meeting there were several interesting talks. Mr. Ritter, first, then Mr. Elliott, of Roanoke, a member of the Virginia Highway Commission, spoke on the construction of roads in Virginia, and gave assurance that the highway connecting Roanoke and Winston-Salem would be soon completed. Mr. Elliott was followed by Hines, highway commissioner of North Carolina. Mr. Hines gave an outline of the work done in North Carolina. He suggested that a committee be appointed to co-operate with the North Carolina Highway Commission in getting the Shenandoah Valley through Virginia marked No. 77, to correspond with the North and South Carolina highway. He said if this could be done, then No. 77 would be the most talked of highway in the country.

DAILY PUZZLE

YEMFAEDIEIGS
The line of letters given above is, apparently, meaningless. But if a single letter of the alphabet is inserted, a number of times, among them, a sentence can be formed that has reference to a baseball game.

Yesterday's answer:
The man had stamps of denominations as follows: 50, 25, 20, 20, 20, 10, 10, 5, 5, 3, 2, 2.
He placed them as follows:
First package: 25, 20, 10, 5.
Second package: 50, 20, 23, 2.
Third package: 50, 10, 5, 3, 2.
Thus each package contained an equal number of stamps (five), and each totaled 70 cents.

Galax Ghost Does Strange Stunts

GALAX, Va., Sept. 20.—Ghosts and spirits have been shamelessly neglected as a Virginia asset. In fact, they are neglected generally by the newspapers ever since the presidential campaign started and the Chinese war opened. This community boasts of a ghost which refuses to be neglected, making itself noticeable as to drive one family from house and home.

Wiley Poe, who is a tenant on the farm of Monroe Carico, three miles east of this town, was away from home working at a saw mill in North Carolina when the startling visitor appeared to frighten his wife and children. As told by Mrs. Poe and colored in some instances by neighbors, the visitor pulled covers from beds in which Mrs. Poe and her children were sleeping, all in the same room. A tub of water on the range was tipped over, the tub rattling itself after the water had spilled on the floor. A dog kennel in the yard turned upside down. A bucket of water was tossed from the table, the water being spilled and the dipper remaining in the bucket. A steel stove-repairer in the yard stood on end and made a noise.

Two of the children were gathering beans when a branch of a large tree was bent low to the ground, only to spring up as if some heavy object had jumped on it. Screens were torn from windows and from three weeks. No clothes were ever heard, and the manifestations at night stopped whenever a lamp was lighted.

Mrs. Poe, it is said, endured the phenomena for three weeks, calling on her neighbors occasionally to see what was going on. One of these, Mrs. Marbury, was present when several of the things happened. Finally Mrs. Poe wrote her husband, and when he learned that what had happened, he lost no time in moving his family into another home.

SEVERAL DAYS WILL ELAPSE BEFORE THE RETURN OF VON BERG

REIDSVILLE, Sept. 20.—No immediate steps are to be taken to bring about the return to this state of Henry Von Berg wealthy step-son of T. J. Penn, who is charged with responsibility for an accident early last Sunday morning resulting in fatal injuries to Jeff Montgomery, an aged negro, who, while riding a horse was struck by the youth's car.

Chief of Police Jackson on Friday stated that he would send a summons to the accused who is now at school in Indiana to return without delay to answer a charge of manslaughter. The summons has not yet been sent and possibly will not be for several days. Solicitor D. H. Mayberry expects the case will come up within the next ten days but sees no necessity to compel the young man's presence here immediately since he is already under $1,000 bond to appear when wanted. The state also has work to do in preparing the case. It is said Mr. Mayberry states that no coroner's inquest was necessary on the negro because there is no mystery about the fact that he died from double pneumonia which followed internal injuries sustained in the accident. It is possible that a hearing will have to be held to determine judicially the age of Von Berg. The solicitor is not certain himself as to the date of his birth. If he is under sixteen the trial will be held in the juvenile court and if he is over then he will be proceeded against as any adult would be in the recorder's court.

The widow of the negro shows no bitterness over the misfortune and it is understood she will not seek to push the case. Relatives of the youth are understood to be willing to make a settlement. Chief Jackson states that such negotiations are now going on.

GAS PRICE AVERAGE AT NEW LOW LEVEL

(By The Associated Press.)
NEW YORK, Sept. 20.—The gasoline price average for 30 principal cities of the United States is now at a new low level for the year of 14.71 cents through the reduction of one cent a gallon tank wagon by the Standard Oil company of New Jersey. Last year's low was 12.7 cents. The high average for 1924 was 18.13 cents. This was said to readjust gasoline prices to the basis of present crude oil prices resulting from reductions throughout the country except California.

GIRL FIGHTING FOR BROTHER'S LIFE

Bertha Krauser, 18-year-old factory girl, sums up, in the following story, the fight she and her family are making to save her brother. Walter Krauser, from the gallows. She has written this article exclusively for News Service and The Bee.

By BERTHA KRAUSER
Eighteen-Year-Old Sister of Walter Krauser

If your brother and playmate were under sentence to be hanged, it would not be hard for you, perhaps, to open your heart in begging the courts and the governor and the whole world to spare his life.

It is that position that I am in now.

My brother, Walter Krauser, just two years older than I am, is at the county jail. Nearly three years ago he was mixed up in a foolish, wrong attempt to rob a grocery. There was a scuffle with a policeman, the policeman was killed and Walter was convicted of murder.

The sentence was death.

We appealed, and the supreme court still is considering the case. But it already has passed upon the appeal of Bernard Grant, who was sentenced in the same case, and it ordered Grant be hanged on the 17th of next month. It is hard to hope since then.

Just now we are thinking mostly about the Leopold and Loeb boys who had all the advantages at their trial that money could buy, and whose lives are safe now, down at Joliet.

We can not think my brother, whatever his fault, deserves a penalty more severe than the law demands from those two. On the other hand there are a great many things to be said for Walter, which I think might have influenced the jury to mercy if a fine lawyer had said them.

The grief we have had makes us sympathetic. We are glad the lives of the Loeb and Leopold boys were spared. We are glad their families are spared the grief of the death sentence. But that doesn't relieve the horror when at night here in our flat by the stockyards I dream of Walter on the gallows.

Walter and I went to school together to the Fallon school. Mother was working out for her health was good then and she helped support the family. And after school we played in front of the house and did little chores.

Walter got into fights for me. Once the kids started calling me Mary Pickford because of my yellow hair.

BERTHA KRAUSER

It teased me and made me cry, and Walter fought the whole bunch and made them stop.

I quit school three years ago because father was out of a job and Walter was just a special delivery messenger mail boy and wasn't making much money. He brought every cent home to mother, though.

It wasn't long before one of my fingers was crushed in a punch press. The factory gave me $250, and I was out of work a long time. But we saved the money.

That money has gone now, of course, with everything else we had. We didn't have a paid lawyer at the trial. The judge appointed one. The money went for the papers and the lawyer's work in making the appeal to the supreme court.

I'm getting $15 a week now, learning to be a bookbinder. That goes to Walter. Every week we take him things to eat and tobacco, to make him as comfortable as possible while he is in jail. He fares better there than the family does here.

FIRST SHIPMENT OF NEW CROP COTTON

NEW YORK, Sept. 20.—First shipments of new crop cotton by the All-Russian Textile Syndicate Inc. are now on their way to Russia. Consignments of 12,000 bales have gone forward within the past fortnight and cargoes aggregating 23,500 bales will leave from Galveston and other southern ports next week. The exports, which previously have been routed to Russia through Germany, that no coroner's inquest was necessary on the negro because there is no mystery about the fact that he died from double pneumonia which followed internal injuries sustained in the accident. It is possible that a hearing will have to be held to determine judicially the age of Von Berg. The solicitor is not certain himself as to the date of his birth. If he is under sixteen the trial will be held in the juvenile court and if he is over then he will be proceeded against as any adult would be in the recorder's court.

DENVER RAILWAY TO SOLD AT AUCTION

Harrington, special master to conduct the sale, named by Judge Foster Symes yesterday. The minimum bid to be received under the direction of the purchased by the Russian syndicate in court will be $17,935,700.

The Latest Model Ophthalmometer

DR. J. D. BUTLER'S METHOD OF EXAMINING EYES.

Frequently the eye is distorted in such a way that the hard front surface, called the cornea, will not be truly spherical as Nature intended it to be. In other words, the surface will not be truly round or circular in every meridian, but will be shaped very much like the bowl of a spoon. This defect is known as astigmatism and can be accurately measured with the ophthalmometer and a lens ground to correct it. The lens must be made of a different strength in the different meridians; that is to say, whatever error is found in the eye an equally strong but opposite error must be ground on the surface of the lens to be worn in front of the eye. There the one error neutralizes the other and correct vision results.

If your eyes bother you in any way, if they tire quickly or become inflamed, if you do not see easily and well, if headaches impair your efficiency or interfere with your pleasure, if you cannot enjoy every minute of your reading, ask immediately. Consultation free from 9 to 11 and 2 to 6 o'clock.

DANVILLE-RICHMOND BUS LINE PERMIT REFUSED YESTERDAY

Associated Press advices received from Richmond Saturday brought word that the application made by the Royal Blue Transportation Company of Greensboro, N. C. for a certificate to operate passenger bus service between Richmond and Danville had been denied by the State Corporation Commission. Details for the withholding of a permit were not given in the dispatch.

The Greensboro corporation which operates a number of bus lines in the adjoining state served notice nearly two months ago that it intended to apply, indicating that it was desirous of extending its lines into Virginia. The Southern Railway Company however also indicated that it would contest the application since the proposed bus route runs virtually parallel to the railway line between Danville and Richmond, one of the oldest divisions in the system. The railway company has held that it would be unfair to award a franchise to a competing carrier system in view of the investment already made in the permanent way, stations and right of way.

Had the application been granted the bus route between this city and Richmond would have been the longest in the state. The proposed fair would have been virtually the same as that paid for rail transportation and the duration of the trip would have been five hours. Two round trips each day were contemplated.

CHATHAM, Va., Sept. 20.—The taking of depositions in a suit instituted by the Co-operative Marketing Association against several alleged contract-breakers was closed here yesterday. Decees have been entered make those cases triable before the next regular term of Pittsylvania circuit court, which does not begin till the third Monday in October.

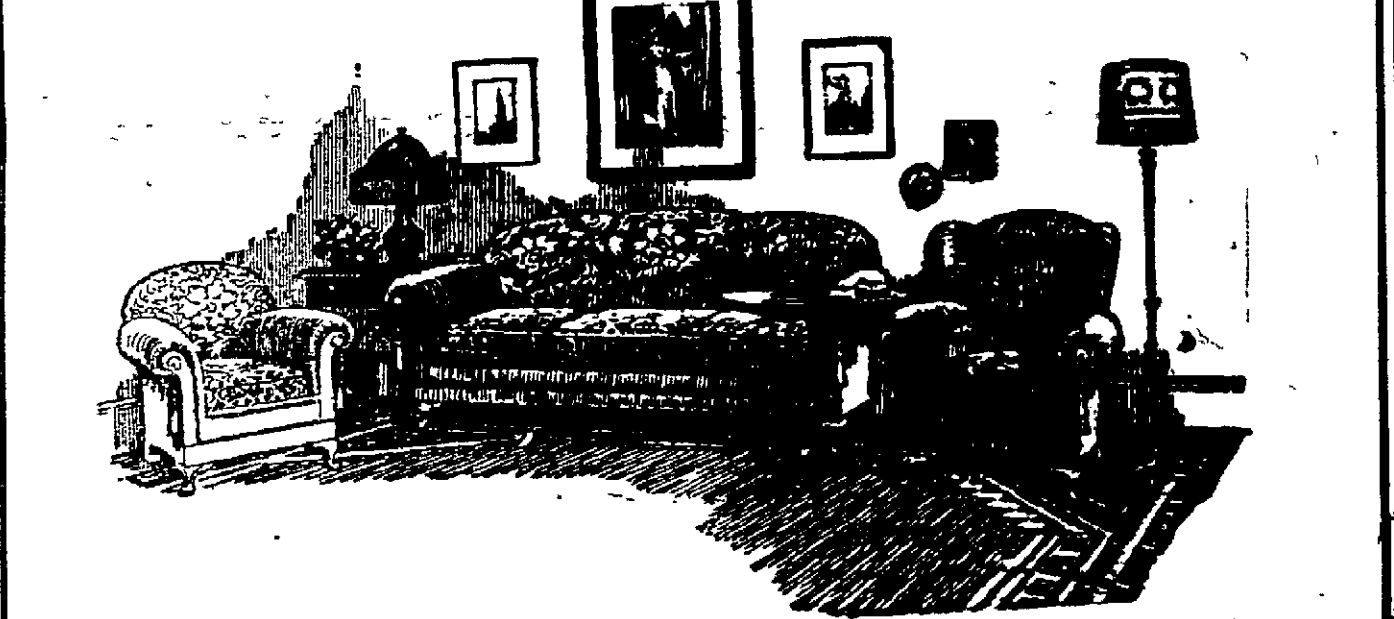

The question fundamentally at issue in the cases is that of the validity of the contract they signed. This length by Colonel Joyner, of North Carolina; Aaron Sapiro, of California; and Major George T. Rison for the co-operative association, and by R. I. Overby for the contract-signers. While no date is set for the further consideration and determination of these cases, it is expected that they will be called at an early date.

AT THE BROADWAY MONDAY AND TUESDAY

MARY PICKFORD in "DOROTHY VERNON OF HADDON HALL"

BILLY LEROY AND HIS BROADWAY REVUE

VARIED PROGRAM AT MAJESTIC THIS WEEK

A show with the diversion of a Keith program is the offering of Billy Leroy for the opening of his week's engagement at the Majestic. Leroy and Witzgall, black art and foot work, the Jung Brothers, comedy acrobats, Miss Nelson, blues singer, the Harmony quartette, Eddie Hill, magician, comedy monologists and soloists are vaudeville acts that feature the show. Interspersed with numerous comedy bits, "Gost Mountain," with Billy Leroy and Walter Witzgall in a double blackface role that proves the climax to an hour of good entertainment. It would seem that from among the many and varied offerings, the Jung Brothers have the edge in point of popularity. The boys have the only act of this nature playing tabloid and their appearance outside of the circus tent, where acts of this kind have heretofore been exclusive, is a distinct novelty.

Miss Nelson rendered her blues number in real modern style, possessing a good voice and a version of presentation that is especially pleasing. Her efforts were enthusiastically applauded.

The Harmony Quartette was another feature seemingly enjoyed by all. This class of music is always acceptable in the South, the home of vocal harmony. It could well be said that the boys offered some good harmony in both ballad and jazz numbers.

Eddie Hill, offering a magical act, was completely mystifying to his audience. Some managers say that a magic act slows up a show. On this we all agree. One witnessing Eddie's manipulation of tricks that baffle the swiftness of the human

HORSE COMES INTO OWN WITH CIRCUS THIS YEAR

In the days before a Boston critic wrote that "Sells-Floto, the circus without a headache, has graduated from a western show into a North American institution," the troupe from "Where the West Begins" boasted of its horses, as the lads from "the wide spaces" are apt to do. Now, Sells-Floto—coming to Danville, Old Fair Grounds, Monday, September 29—has added champion high jumping equines from England and Italy to its canvas stables; and from Budapest it has brought the most famous of all liberty horse acts—an offering in which forty-eight handsome stallions enter at $50,000 was spent on wardrobe and scenic inventiveness.

eye must have time to figure how it's done—and most of those present last night are still figuring. To recruit the exceptional talent in the cast of Mr. Leroy's fourteen people show is necessary to invade the ranks of Zarnum and Bailey and Ringling Brothers circus, Coburn's Minstrels, and other high class shows but the efforts of the young manager seem rewarded if one can judge by packed houses that have passed up attractions and braved the inclement weather to see the show.

MARY PICKFORD AT BROADWAY TODAY

America's Sweetheart Attractive in "Dorothy Vernon of Haddon Hall" Here for Two Days

Announcement has been made by Manager Hester of the Broadway theater, that Mary Pickford in "Dorothy Vernon of Haddon Hall," her latest United Artists attraction, will be shown in Danville for the first time today. The picture comes from Richmond where it was shown to crowded houses at $1.00 and $1.50.

Picturing "Dorothy Vernon of Haddon Hall," the most famous of the Charles Major novels, stands out as one of the cinema events of the year, presenting Mary Pickford in her greatest role. Her thoughts having dwelt so much upon the filming of this story, Mary has given her whole heart and soul to the creation of her newest screen personality.

A most capable cast of players will be seen in her support. Allan Forrest is the lover, Sir John Manners, and Mare MacDermott is the villainous cousin, Malcolm Vernon. Anders Randolf makes an ideal father for Dorothy Vernon, and Wilfred Lucas is the Earl of Rutland. Clare Barnes, famous for her portrayal of queenly roles on the speaking stage, brings to the screen a characterization of Queen Elizabeth that is a revelation of histrionic art.

The production is lavish, no expense having been spared in erecting stately mansions and mediaeval castles. Scenes of pageantry and revelry are presented with picturesque magnificence.

SOVIET WARSHIP'S MOVEMENT. ROME, Sept. 20.—In view of the incidents in the Soudan, it is worth recalling that the Bolshevik war ship Vorovsk left the port of Naples for Alexandria the day following the announcement of the Egyptian agitation.

BROADWAY NIGHT LIFE PORTRAYED IN FILM

Broadway knows no closed season! Continuous is its life its pulse beats ceaselessly. At all hours of the night, as of the day, it swallows up its millions of pleasure-seeking votaries, and vomits them out of its theaters, cafes and dance halls.

But it never closes. How it moves, and what sort of life it lives, is shown in "Broadway After Dark," the screen version of the Owen Davis melodrama, which will play at the Broadway Wednesday and Thursday.

This Warner Brothers' Classic of the Screen is an honest attempt to reveal via the screen the soul of the world's greatest city, to show that beneath the outward glare and glamour of the Great White Way human hearts and impulses are the same as on "Main Street."

It is the story of Rose Duane, who has served a term in prison for having stolen money with which to provide luxuries for her dying mother. The detective who caused her arrest is shadowing her, waiting for his chance to fix her a second time. Into the boarding house where she is working comes Ralph Norton, a pampered son of wealth, weary of the hectic life he has been living. After meeting Rose, Ralph forms the design of sending her to his rich friends, as a relative, to test a theory he has that clothes make a man or woman, and that nothing else matters.

GRIFFITH CREATES NEW FILM COMEDIAN

D. W. Griffith has created another comedy character in his latest screen sensation "One Exciting Night," a United Artists release coming Friday and Saturday to the Broadway Theater, that at once takes rank with his other great comedy characters.

It was "The Little Disturber" in "Hearts of the World," according to students of psychology, who started the flapper craze in America. With her tam o' shanter, knee skirts and independent, roguish manner, The Little Disturber became a living character in American life.

This time Mr. Griffith has taken a negro character to mould into a living being that everyone immediately recognizes, likes intensely and laughs with him.

The player to whom this fortunate chance came is Porter Strong, and the new character is "Romeo," a good-natured black man, human and likeable, with all the weaknesses at which humanity loves to laugh, and virtues that make him one that everyone likes also.

For years, Porter Strong has been a comedian with the Griffith company, occasionally playing "blackface" parts. He is a graduate of the old minstrel companies, playing with many of the great names of old. He was born in St. Joseph, Missouri, and as a youngster began entertaining his family with imitations of negro people.

CLASSIC PLAYS OF THE GRIDIRON

By FRANK B. BRIDGES
Director of Athletics, Baylor University, Texas.

All afternoon "Bill" Coffey played possum and waited his chance. All afternoon he caught punts without attempting to run them back. Each time he signaled a fair catch.

Finally, late in the last quarter, the opportunity for which "Bill" had been watching came and he ran. Oh, how he ran! That run I regard as one of the greatest I have ever seen in football.

Coffey was playing quarterback for Baylor against the great Texas University team in our big game of the year on Nov. 10, 1923. He was only a kid, a sophomore weighing but 135 pounds. But fast a great blocker and possessed of rare ability for remembering what he is told and then doing it.

The Saturday before tackling Texas "U" Baylor had engaged in a grueling scoreless tie with Texas A. & M. game and we needed him in there every minute against Texas "U" to run the team. Thus the instructions of the coach were to play for a whole afternoon of alertness.

punt and watch for a chance to catch the opposing ends off guard. That chance came when, having watched Coffey fair catch all afternoon, the Texas ends loafed down the field on a punt late in the game. The punt was low, made to order. The time had come to run and Coffey knew it. So he took that punt on the dead run and was between the ends before they realized what was happening. Then, cutting to the right, the "possum" came to life, sidestepped, pivoted and finally broke into the clear. Baylor had been playing Texas to a standstill. The score stood 7-7 and it looked like another touchdown. When Coffey struck a sandhole, slipped and was downed from behind on the eight-yard line. Unable to gain and with only two minutes left to play, we attempted to kick goal and failed. But Coffey is not to blame that we fell short of victory, for he had put us in position to score and all but turned the trick alone by running 62 yards through the great Texas team. That run demonstrates the danger of letting down for even an instant. One moment of guard may offset a whole afternoon of alertness.

Portsmouth 7, Rocky Mount 8.
Richmond 2, Wilson 5.

MARVIN SMITH

Evansville of the Three-Eye League has sold Shortstop Marvin Smith to the Philadelphia Athletics. Smith, who started his baseball career with Oakland, Calif., has attracted lots of attention from his league scouts this year because of his hitting and fielding. He joined Connie's team at the close of the Three-Eye season.

MISSOURI VALLEY SCHEDULES

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Sept. 20.—Football schedules of the Missouri Valley conference this fall offer, besides the conference championship engagements, a dash of inter-sectionalism.

The University of Nebraska, with the most imposing list, will play teams from east and west, a member of the Big Ten, and again will clash with Notre Dame, which bowed to the Cornhuskers last year.

Nebraska opens hostilities with Illinois at Lincoln, October 4; meets Colgate October 18 at Lincoln, and on November 15 travels to South Bend for the battle with Coach Rockne's eleven, winding up the season at Lincoln Thanksgiving Day with the Oregon Aggies. On the Cornhuskers schedule are four conference games.

ANNOUNCE CHANGES IN FOOTBALL RULES

(By The Associated Press.) NEW YORK, Sept. 20.—A change in the football rules for 1924 which permits the receiving eleven to be behind the kicking eleven in front of the point from which the kick-off is made, no matter what yard line is chosen by the kicking team, was announced today by Chairman E. F. Hall of the American Intercollegiate Football Rules Committee.

The following clause is added to Section 3, Rule 8, and is effective immediately:

"In case the kick-off is made from a point behind the middle of the field, the opponents shall be behind a line ten yards in front of the spot from which the kick is made."

Did you know a rule was 10 per cent. stronger when wet? This even includes the campaign cigars.

SEVENTY-THIRD ARTICLE

Building and Loan Associations.
So many of my readers have inquired about building and loan associations and their method of operation that a few words of explanation on this subject seem highly desirable. First, then, the objects of a building and loan association or a savings and loan association, as it is officially termed in some States, are two-fold. One of these objects is the promotion of thrift through regular and systematic saving and the other is to encourage home ownership.

These associations are strictly regulated by law and in many States come under the supervision of the State banking department. The money that the members save is used to make loans on improved real estate and loans are extended to members only. Borrowers are obliged to pay of their mortgages, principal as well as interest, according to a regular schedule. At the same time a borrowing member participates in the profits of the association.

The strength of these associations, aside from the strict supervision under which they operate, lies in the fact that the loans are made on property located in the immediate neighborhood of their home offices and the value of which the responsible officials of the association are in a position accurately to appraise. The comparatively high earnings usually accruing to the shares are due to the low overhead and to the fact that all the profits belong to the members. In other words the building and loan association is a mutual co-operative institution surrounded by the safeguards of law.

This is not to say that opportunities for mismanagement do not exist nor that all associations are equally successful. One should use the same precautions in selecting a building and loan association which he would use in picking out a bank with which to do business. The record of the building and loan idea, however, justifies confidence in its essential soundness. The first of these associations was organized in Philadelphia in 1831 and now there are more than 10,000 associations in the United States with over 7,000,000 members and $3,500,000,000 total assets.

Exhibition In Charlotte Opens This Afternoon

(By The Associated Press)
CHAPEL HILL, N. C., Sept. 22.—With what was said to be the largest collection of Carolina products ever assembled in one place everything was in readiness for the formal opening at 3 o'clock this afternoon of the "made-in-Carolina" exposition here.

Governor Cameron Morrison was scheduled to deliver an address at the formal opening of the event, which will continue for two weeks. A contest was on the program for the opening.

Governor Thomas G. McLeod of South Carolina scheduled to speak at the opening this afternoon has notified exposition officials that due to unexpected developments he would be unable to attend.

Practically every industry and enterprise in North and South Carolina is represented with exhibits at the exposition. An exhibit of textile machinery and textile products sent here by a northern concern is also expected to attract much attention.

Ask for "Justice" In Eggleston Case

(Special to The Bee)

MARTINSVILLE, Va., Sept. 22.—The Eggleston murder case is far from being a dead issue in the country. Public enquiry is in such a state of demand estimates of the future, being now influenced by an over-plus of immediate supplies. There is not sufficient new speculative demand to carry the hedging sales comfortably. Estimates of a short crop of corn are four annual, but there are indications of an approaching movement of old corn. None of the grains possess an important buying incentive just now.

Plans for Dawes' Western Speaking

CHICAGO, Sept. 22.—Detailed plans for the western speaking trip of Charles C. Dawes, Republican candidate for vice president, were being formulated at the headquarters of the Republican National Committee here today with a view to submission to the nominee before he leaves Wednesday night on his next speaking trip to Minnesota.

Plans for Dawes' Western Speaking

The trip into the far west as tentatively arranged, will cover about ten days or two weeks, starting about October 4 and will provide for a number of rear platform speeches. Mr. Dawes returned from his South Dakota trip declaring his readiness and desire to make rear platform speeches wherever arrangements could be made on his future tours, and officials of the Republican speakers bureau said today that numerous short stops would be scheduled on the western trip. The States to be included in the tour still were undetermined except in tentative way today, but it was understood that reports as to increasing strength behind the La Follette independent candidacy in Iowa had led to consideration of the question of including that State in the itinerary.

Cotton Spinning Activity Shows Slight Recovery

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Sept. 22.—Cotton-spinning activity showed a slight recovery in August after several months of decline, according to the Census Bureau's monthly report issued today.

Active spindle hours in August numbered 5,399,549,661, or an average of 143 per spindle in place, compared with 5,173,779,726 or an average of 139 in July this year and 5,690,611,615, or an average of 202 in August last year.

Spinning spindles in place August 31 numbered 37,822,706, of which 28,945,603 were active at some time during the month, compared with 37,866,494, of which 28,710,358 were active in July this year and 37,430,195, of which 33,408,467 were active in August last year.

The average number of spindles operated during August was 23,761,440 or at 62.8 per cent, capacity on a single shift basis, compared with 22,687,499 or at 60.0 per cent, capacity in July this year and 22,075,013 or at 55.7 per cent, in August last year.

MORNING STOCK LETTER.

(Thomson & McKinnon)

NEW YORK, Sept. 22.—There is nothing in news to bring about a change in the market trend. We are all aware that what business improvement we have witnessed has been far from uniform in spots quite some betterment, notably in steel, motors and kindred industries. On the whole, however, we can safely say there has been some improvement, taking conditions by and large. The public interest in the market is still small, due wholly to political doubt. The public attitude at this time is likened to one preparing to take a dive, before doing so he will be anxious to determine the depth of the water. Just now the public is interested in the depth of the politics waters before taking a decisive stand in the market. Regardless of the confident tone of the rival campaign managers the public appears to be doing its own thinking and taking nothing for granted.

MORNING GRAIN LETTER.

CHICAGO, Sept. 22.—Wheat market has become immune to supply and demand estimates of the future, being now influenced by an over-plus of immediate supplies. There is not sufficient new speculative demand to carry the hedging sales comfortably. Estimates of a short crop of corn are four annual, but there are indications of an approaching movement of old corn. None of the grains possess an important buying incentive just now.
